It is pointed out by officers commission was rejected today by the Senator Gallinger had opposed the nominee for fifteen months on the ground that Rublee was "personally obnoxious" to him, and the power of the senatorial courtecy tradition was so great that he won his point by a vote of 42 to 26 in spite of vigorous and insistent fight by the administration for confirmation.

Mr. Rublee who has been serving on the commission since soon after it was created will lose his position and draw no salary for his work unless the Senate's action is reconsidered.

Five Republicans votted for his con fimation and fourteen Democrats vot ed against it.

After the roll call, which followed " bitter debate, Senator Hollis of New Hampshire, who led the fight for Rub changed his vote on the move for reconsideration. This may be done
